DEDICATION

Though we may be far apart, our friendship will always be one of love and trust. Mr. Valorose, we dedicate this yearbook to you with the hope that you will remember the treasured times we shared.

The class of '79 would like to thank Miss Riel for her four devoted years of service to our class. We would also like to thank Mr. Ives for accepting the responsibility of being our class advisor during our senior year.

We will always appreciate the friendship and guidance you have given us these past four years.

Let me lose a locket,
Money or my keys,
And I can always find a way
to substitute for these;
Let me lose a yard of time,
And I can race the sun,
Or stay up til the last pale star
And get things done;
But let me lose a friend I love,
Heart has no door nor pane,
And all the bitter winds rush in
And all the lonely rain.

CLASS SONG

THE CIRCLE GAME

Yesterday a child came out to wonder,
Caught a dragonfly inside a jar.
Fearful when the sky was full of thunder,
And tearful at the falling of a star.

(Chorus)

And the seasons, they go 'round and 'round,
And the painted ponies go up and down.
We're captive on the carousel of time.
We can't return, we can only look behind
From where we came and go 'round and 'round
And 'round in the circle game.

Then the child moved ten times round the seasons,
Skated over ten clear frozen streams.
Words like "when you're older" must appease him,
And promises of someday make his dreams.

(Chorus)

Sixteen springs and sixteen summers gone now,
Cart wheels turn to car wheels through the town.
And they tell him, "Take your time, it won't be long now,
Till you drag your feet to slow the circle down."

(Chorus)

So the years spin by and now the boy is twenty,
Though his dreams have lost some grandeur coming true.
There'll be new dreams, maybe better dreams, and plenty,
Before the last revolving year is through.

(Chorus)

Joni Mitchell

CLASS HISTORY

Shaking the dust off our hats, we cowhands walked into East Windsor High School Ranch where we were shown to our quarters. At sunrise we shook hands with Marshall Morton and Sheriff Saitta, who laid down the laws of the land. We were to abide by these during our stay at the Ranch.

We knew we would need hired hands to lead the herd. We lassoed Deputy Tracy Drake, Assistant Deputy Holly Golden, Clerk Roxie Stolle, and Banker Terry Michaud.

The first show-down was our Pep Rally where we were snowed in by the other ranchers. We shoveled our way out by coming in a close third. Up to our ears in debt, we hit the dusty trail up the Friendly Mountains and brought back a hardy supply of grub to serve all the ranch hands who visited our Sundae Fundae booth at the Bicentennial Shindig. Watching the sun go down on our first year, we were satisfied with our herd and ranch.

At sunup of our second year, we rustled up a new set of hired hands. They were Deputy Terry Michaud, Assistant Deputy Holly Golden, Clerk Roxie Stolle, and Banker Tracy Drake. This time we knew we were ready for the Rodeo.

Full of spirit at our second Pep Rally Rodeo, and determined not to have our hides tanned again, we bubbled over and stampeded into the number one spot. Satisfying the orders of The Sweet Tooth Saloon, we had our candy drive and served up more chow at our Service Day Shindig. This filled our pockets with the jingling sound of gold nuggets. Having to break away from the Ranch for a spell, we saddled our Pintos and Mustangs and headed out to the watering hole at Misquamicut. We rode back to the Ranch and received our rhinestone spurs to make our year complete.

By the time our third year rolled along, we knew the ropes pretty well and thought we should receive some slack time for a siesta. Staking out our campfire area, we chose our new hired hands: Deputy Lisa MacPherson, Assistant Deputy Donna Colton, Clerk Holly Golden, and Banker Wendy Gagg.

We climbed the Rocky Ice-Cream Mountains for what had become a traditional Sundae Fundae Hoedown. We tried to rope in first place at the Rodeo, but it was called a neck-to-neck draw with the '78 Varmints. Needing another change of scenery, we polished our spurs, scrubbed down our Pintos, and drove our covered wagons to The Elmcrest Square Dance. Kerry Kessler, a purdy little gal, was picked Do-Si-Do Dolly. As we saw the sun setting on the close of our third year, we were quite pleased with the accomplishments we had made.

We were determined to start our fourth year off with a bang because we finally had a chance to kick up our heels and raise some dust. Deputy Patti Teller, Assistant Deputy Donna Colton, Clerk Tracy Drake, and Banker Wendy Gagg were the new hired hands.

The cowhands sold their goods at the annual Magazine Fair to get funds to operate the bunkhouse. Rustling up the most coins was Joan Gudaitis. At our last Rodeo, we placed second. We really stuffed ourselves at the Christmas Shindig and then shoe stomped to the sounds of Deep Roots. Our last outing was a few days away from the Ranch at High Meadow Campgrounds and Grassmere Plantation.

As we hitched our wagon trains at the end of our stay at the Ranch, we all knew we might be led to different paths. With the sun slowly setting in the West, it was time for us to hit the happy trail.

Giddy-up!

What Is a Friend?

What is a friend? I will tell you. It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself. Your soul can be naked with him. He seems to ask of you to put on nothing, only to be what you are. He does not want you to be better or worse. You can say what you think, so long as it is genuinely you. With him you breathe freely. You can avow your little vanities and envies and hates and vicious sparks, your meannesses and absurdities and, in opening them up to him, they are lost, dissolved on the white ocean of his loyalty. He understands. You can abuse him, neglect him, tolerate him. Best of all, you can keep still with him. You can weep with him, sin with him, laugh with him, pray with him. Through it all — and underneath — he sees, knows, and loves you. What is a friend? Just one, I repeat, with whom you dare to be yourself.

My Friend
 This is my friend —
           the first to offer praise
 When I have found success
           to crown my days;
 And when I am afraid
           or fail or grieve,
 The first to reach my side,
           the last to leave.

This is my friend —
           who sees my lonely task
 And helps me by some thoughtful deed
           before I ask;
 With her there is no reason to pretend.
 She knows my faults
           and loves me anyway —
 My friend.

Friendship is a priceless gift that cannot be bought or sold, but its value is far greater than a mountain made of gold — for gold is cold and lifeless, it can neither see nor hear, and in times of trouble it is powerless to cheer. It has no ears to listen, no heart to understand. It cannot bring you comfort or reach out a helping hand. So when you ask God for a gift, be thankful if He sends not diamonds, pearls, or riches, but the love of real true friends.
